May the Bhagwan inspire humanity to follow the path of righteousness (Dharma). When people adhere to Dharma, the entire universe benefits. Since time immemorial, Bharat has been practicing Dharma, bringing well-being of the universe (Lokah samastah sukhino bhavantu). Whenever humanity loses its way due to the increased influence of demonic forces, making it difficult to follow Dharma, the Bhagwan incarnates to restore and uphold Dharma (Yada yada hi dharmasya glanirbhavati Bharata abhythanamadharmasya tadatmanam srijamyaham).

It is in Bharat that Sanatan Dharma is being practiced, and that is why the Bhagwan chooses to incarnate here in this holy place. This has led scholars all over the world to recognize Bharat as a Vishwa guru a nation worthy of respect throughout the world.

In creation, it is natural for humans to be more inclined toward evil forces when influenced by good and bad forces. Those who incite this evil are known as Demons.

In the Treta Yuga, the Supreme Being incarnated as Rama, practiced Dharma, and established Rama Rajya among the people of his kingdom. In the Dwapara Yuga, He incarnated as Krishna, vanquished the forces of Adharma (unrighteousness) through the teachings of Dharma, and re-established Dharma.

In this Kali Yuga, where Dharma is weak and struggles to maintain its presence, the reinstallation of Sri Rama in Ayodhya after 500 years, who embodies unified Dharma, will bring peace to the world.

Due to the current decline of Dharma, both internal and external, and the many calamities, internal wars and natural disasters. Kanchi Kamakshi Amma has ordered through her Temple's Chief priest Sri Suresh Sastry that a Rudra Sahita Chandi Yagam be performed in Ayodhya Dham (First of the seven most important pilgrimage places for Hindus) the birth place of Maryada Purushottam Bhagvan Sri Ram to restore the peace. The scriptures also affirm that in Kali Yuga, the worship of Vinayaka and Chandi is especially powerful, as noted in the authoritative texts, "Kalau Chandi Vinayakau."

In the presence of Bhagwan Rama, performing the "Sri Maha Narayana Divya Rudra Sahita Shata Sahasra Chandi Vishwa Shanti Maha Yagam" will bring the Vishwa Shanti (World Peace), universal well-being, and inspire Dharma among the people.

Ayodhya, Kashi, and Kanchi, three ancient centers of knowledge and glory, share a bond that transcends time and the same has been referred to in Upanishads and Puranas. The connection between Kanchi and Ayodhya is mentioned in the 39th and 40th chapters of Lalitopakhyanam. It tells how Ayodhya's childless King Dasharath had a dream in which he was advised to visit Kanchi to pay respects to Goddess Kamakshi. King Dasharatha traveled 2000 km from Ayodhya to Kanchi in the Treta Yug to seek the blessings of Goddess Kamakshi. He performed the "Putra Kameshti Yagam" in Ayodhya, later being blessed with four illustrative sons, including Bhagwan Ram. Goddess Kamakshi is also the Kuldevi (clan deity) of the Ikshvaku clan, as mentioned in the Markandeya Purana.

The bond between Kanchi and Ayodhya is also mentioned in the Brahmanda Purana. Kanchi and Ayodhya are mentioned as Prithvi Kshetram among the Pancha Bhutha Stalam of Bhagwan Siva.

The relation between Kanchi and Ayodhya is mentioned among the 'Pancha Bhuta Sthalam' (temples dedicated to elements of nature) of Bhagwan Shiva, where Kanchi and Ayodhya areas are referred to as 'Prithvi Kshetram'. These two cities are also among the seven centers for attaining Moksha (liberation from the cycle of birth and death), including Ayodhya, Mathura, Maya (Mayapuri or Haridwar), Kashi (Varanasi), Kanchi (Kanchipuram), Avantika (Ujjain) and Dwaravati (Dwaraka). This Yagna is being performed at the birth place of Bhagwan Rama, who established "Rama Rajya" the ideal state of society as envisioned by Bhagwan Rama "Maryada Purushottam", comprising perfect harmony, justice, dharma and prosperity, where people lived in peace and happiness, which in modern times called "Antyodaya" (upliftment of the poorest of the poor).

The Rudra Sahita Chandi Yagam is a prominent and powerful yagam in Hinduism, revered for its comprehensive benefits. By performing this yagam, one can invoke the divine energies of Goddess Chandi and Bhagwan Rudra, offering a powerful solution for various life challenges. This is an ancient ritual that helped to protect the environment and purify the air.

By performing this yagam, everyone can

- ❖ Attain overall success and prosperity
- ❖ Overcome obstacles and doshas (negative energies)
- ❖ Alleviate health issues and cure serious illnesses
- ❖ Protect against evil eyes, curses, and natural calamities
- ❖ Foster unity, love, and spiritual growth
- ❖ Receive a protective shield against diseases, viruses and negative forces

At the behest of Kamakshi Amma and blessed by Sri Kanchi Kama Koti Peetam, jointly organized by Chinmayi Seva Trust and Sri Rama Janma Bhoomi Teertha Kshetra Trust, Kanchi Kama Koti Peetam and Chinmayi Sewa Trust. "Sri Maha Narayana Divya Rudra Sahita Shata Sahasra Viswa Shanti Chandi yagam" is being organized at the Ayodhya Dham (The Spiritual Capital of Sanatana Dharma), is going to witness a very spiritual, Devotional, & most of the renowned Dharmadikaris, Peethadipatis, & Maha pandits from Pan India with a perfect harmonizing of North & South is a unique and ambitious endeavor aimed at promoting global harmony and prosperity. This event is first of its kind to be focused on various aspects of well-being, including World peace, Communal Harmony, Environmental Well-being, Human Well-being, Social and Moral Well-being, Self-reliant Baharat, Samruddha Bharat, Viksit Bharat.

This is a sacred fire ritual performed to invoke the divine energy of Goddess Chandi (a manifestation of Goddess Durga), Bhagwan Rudra (a form of Bhagwan Shiva), and other Gods and Goddesses offering a powerful solution for various life challenges, seeking blessings and protection from all kinds of evil forces.

A Sakala Devata Swaroopam Yajnam which covers all the 33 Crore Devi & Devatas including Ganesha, Brahma, Vishnu, Mahesha, Chandi & Navagrahas. One lakh Count of Chandi first time conducted in the world for 45 days non-stop. This entire Unique Maha Yagam ritual will take place with utmost devotion, bhakthi under the guidance and supervision of the "Mantra Drashta" "Panchakoti Gayatri Japa Satra Yagakarta", "Sama Darsana Sutapasvi", "Nigamaagamabheejna," "Agama Dhyamani," "Trayi Vidya Bhushana", "Brahmarshi Yanamandra Venu Gopala Shastri Garu", also known as Sri Anandhanatha Guruvaryulu, and his dedicated team of more than 1200 Vedic Scholars from all over Bharat and The chief Acharyas of this ritual, who possesses profound wisdom and brilliance, is the esteemed "Sri Vidya Poorna Deeksha" "Sangeeta Sahitya Vedapraveena" "Shrutivaggeya Kalanidhi", Dr. Yanamandra Srinivasa Sharma Garu, also known as "Neelakanthanandanatha," "Agama Abhigna," "Dhananjaya", Sri Yanamandra Subrahmanya Sharma Garu, also known as "Vimala Anandhanatha" are sons of Sri Shastri Garu, along side him Sri Suresh Shastri garu, Chief Priest of Sri Kamakshi Temple, Kanchipuram for the Bhartiya Sanatana Dharma Kshemam & for the Lokakshemam of our Country & the Universe.

This grand Vishwashanti Maha Yagam is a magnificent and sacred event that will be conducted continuously for 45 days, starting from

November 18th, 2024 (Monday) Ankurarpana and Concluding on January 1st, 2025 (Wednesday).

This Maha Yagam, being performed for the first time in this Kaliyuga, is an unparalleled and extraordinary ritual known as the "Sri Maha Narayana Divya Rudra Sahita Shata Sahasra Chandi Vishwa Shanti Maha Yagam", which has never been seen or heard before in history.

This Yagam reflects the unity of the three supreme divine powers- Paramatma (the Supreme Soul), Shiva, Parashakti, and Mahavishnu. It is conducted as the "Sri Maha Narayana Divya Rudra Sahita Shata Sahasra Chandi Vishwa Shanti Yagam", symbolizing their divine confluence. As part of this Yagam, various sacred rituals will be performed, including Chaturveda Parayanam, Havanams, Panchayatan worship of deities such as Ganapati, Sudarshana, Narasimha Chandi, Vanadurga Mahavidyas, and many other Anushtthanams (rituals), Surya Namaskarams, Sahasra Lingarchanams, Navagraha Mantra Anushtthanams, Subrahmanya Mantra Anushtthanams, Sri Rama Taraka, Anjaneya Maha Mantra Anushtthanams, Srimad Ramayana, Devi Bhagavata Parayanams, and Dasha Koti Chandi Navarna Mula Mantra Anushtthanams.

Sri Maha Bharatha Parayanam	Sri Sundarakanda Parayanam	Upanishath Parayanam	Sri Shakteya Parayanam

and other important parayanams will be rendered during the process of yagam both in the morning and evening sessions.

On the Last day there will be Mahapoornahuthi. This shudda jalam will be taken to the Ayodhya Bhagwan Sri ram and with this holy water there will be Avabrutha snanam to the Bhagwan. (The entire power generated during the 45 days mahayagam will be transferred on to Bhagwan Sri Rama deity).

The Supreme Being is the infinite light, the same as the Atmajyoti (light of the soul) and the great energy. This light permeates countless millions of universes. The word "Siva" is derived by reversing the syllables of "Vasi." This infinite light is Shiva, its energy is Parashakti, and its expanse is Mahavishnu. This is the essence of the Nigama and Agama Vedas, which indicate the inseparable connection between these three divine entities.

- ❖ The Divine Rudra Yagam is dedicated to the infinite light of the Supreme Being, Shiva.
- ❖ The Shata Sahasra Chandi Yagam is dedicated to the infinite light of Parashakti.
- ❖ The Maha Narayana Yagam is dedicated to the infinite light that permeates countless universes, Mahavishnu.
